This is a fast paced thriller meant for readers who search for answers about historical mysteries that will argue that the "accepted" facts have been altered because the true facts will reveal a conspiracy of epic proportion! Can a conspiracy hatched over 400 years ago be so disciplined that it continues today with the goal ever so near? Be forewarned- reading this book will disturb you and cause you to doubt many of the things you have accepted as truth. If you accept the risk you will be launched into a breathtaking adventure through modern history that leads to a startling conclusion. Ask yourself this question: What has "fact" got to do with "truth" if the cards dealt to you have been selected for you before the deal even starts?
