Alone with a Jihadist: A Biblical Response To Holy War Aaron D. Taylor

The very Bible which Christians read refers to their founder as The Prince of Peace. Despite this, many Christians support warmongering and unnecessary bloodshed rather than peace making. In a room for 7 hours with a radical Muslim, Taylor shares the story from his face to face encounter, of how many Muslims view the United States of America and the state of the Christian Church. It is one thing to look at Christianity from a Christian's perspective, but things change quite a bit when Christianity is viewed through the eyes of Muslims. Taylor says, their view is one every Christian must hear. This is the engaging story of that meeting.
