Introducing an ingenious calendar that celebrates the power and the artistry of the font. No longer just the domain of printers and graphic designers, a universe of typefaces is now available to anyone with a computer. Fonts are a simple way to express style and personality, and each is a work of art in itself. Just Type indulges enthusiasts with 12 of the most distinctive and historic typefaces. The squares of each oversize grid are printed using variations of the featured font for an energetic and visually striking look.

Accompanying text includes a description, characteristics, and fascinating trivia. There's Matrix, the first font designed on a Mac. The rounded forms of Bauhaus. And the ornate Caslon, known as the script of kings?but also used by the founding fathers for the Declaration of Independence from the king. Printed on matte stock, this calendar is an elegant gift.
