Domina los malditos phrasal verbs (Spanish Edition) Michael Lennard

Este libro aborda el estudio de los verbos compuestos a través de las preposiciones. ¡El secreto está en la preposición! Es poco habitual hacerlo de esta forma, casi siempre el estudio se realiza desde la perspectiva del verbo, pero entendemos que al agruparlo por preposición el sentido de la misma repercute más en el verbo que viceversa. Por ejemplo, la preposición “up” en una de sus acepciones da el sentido de ‘incrementar’, es así por el que encontramos verbos compuestos como “to blow up” (hinchar), “to fill up” (llenar), “to speak up” (hablar más alto), “to speed up” (acelerar) o “to turn up” (subir el volumen). Estudiándolos agrupados ayudamos a que el estudiante asimile esta influencia y le resulte más sencillo llevarlo a la práctica.
