Claros sinais de loucura (Portuguese Edition) Karen Harrington

Amor pode ser uma palavra-problema para algumas pessoas. Loucura também. Eu sei bem.

Você nunca conheceu ninguém como Sarah Nelson. Enquanto a maioria dos amigos adora Harry Potter, ela passa o tempo escrevendo cartas para Atticus Finch, o advogado de O sol é para todos. Coleciona palavras-problema em um diário, tem uma planta como melhor amiga e vive tentando achar em si mesma sinais de que está ficando louca.

Não é à toa: a mãe tentou afogá-la e ao irmão quando eles tinham apenas dois anos, e desde então mora em uma instituição psiquiátrica. O pai, professor, tornou-se alcoólatra. Fugindo da notoriedade do crime, ele e Sarah já se mudaram de diversas cidades, e a menina jamais se sentiu em casa em nenhuma delas.

Com a chegada do verão em que completa doze anos, ela está cada vez mais apreensiva. Sente falta de um pai mais presente e das experiências que não viveu com a mãe, já se acha grande demais para passar as férias na casa dos avós, está preocupada com a árvore genealógica que fará na escola e ansiosa pelo primeiro beijo de língua que ainda não aconteceu. Mas a vida não pode ser só de preocupações, e, entre uma descoberta e outra, Sarah vai perceber que seu verão tem tudo para ser muito mais. Bem como seu futuro.

“Não ache que será difícil vender esse livro... Harrington criou uma protagonista que, do jeito dela, é tão perspicaz, determinada e inspiradora quanto qualquer heroína distópica.” Booklist
