Time Out Buenos Aires (Time Out Guides)

Time Out Buenos Aires (Time Out Guides)

Argentina's economic crisis thrust Buenos Aires into the glare of the world media in the last 18 months. But the ever-resilient port city has risen to the challenges of the new situation, relying on the creativity of its inhabitants to reinvent itself once again. The devalued peso has contributed to a huge influx of tourists, who find the city thriving against the odds: bars and boutiques continue to spring up, major new museums have been added to the city's cultural offering, a huge range of original tourist services have become available and the range of hotel accommodation has diversified hugely. Time Out's resident journalists uncover the latest developments (as well as the old favourites) in this vibrant and seductive city - and talk to the novelists, psychologists, politicians, actors and artists that make the city tick. From the charm of the city's oldest barrios to the modern dockside developments, the guide uncovers the very best of daytime and nighttime activities. Beyond the city limits, the Time Out team reveal where to go to chill out - from ranches on the pampas to resorts on the Atlantic Coast and across the River Plate to Uruguay.
