Searching for Sacred Space: Essays on Architecture and Liturgical Design in the Episcopal Church

Every Sunday we walk through those (probably red) doors and enter a sacred space. It is familiar . . . maybe comforting . . . maybe not . . . maybe downright uncomfortable and unwelcoming.

In twelve thoughtful and provocative essays, the writers ask important questions about the relationship between sacred spaces and the worship that takes place in them:

- How do our buildings convey a vision of God's kingdom on earth?
- How are our places of worship reflecting our beliefs?
- In what visible, tangible forms are we proclaiming a faith in the living God?
- How are our church buildings helping this church bring the Gospel into a new century?
