Il segreto del poeta (Italian Edition) P.G. Kien

Un manoscritto ritrovato nell'archivio della Cattedrale di Poitiers si rivela un documento unico nel suo genere: la narrazione in prima persona delle esperienze giovanili di un poeta del secolo XII, forse identificabile nel grande Chrétien de Troyes. Créstien, così si firma l'autore, lascia la città natale per un viaggio avventuroso alla ricerca dei cantori tradizionali custodi degli antichi carmi dedicati a Tristano e Artù. Il suo viaggio, un'iniziazione alla vita, alla poesia e all'amore, lo porterà prima in Bretagna, poi alla corte d'Inghilterra e infine in Cornovaglia, al cuore delle lontane e misteriose vicende di Tristano e Isotta. Quello dei due innamorati non è l'unico mistero con il quale Créstien dovrà confrontarsi. Il suo cammino incrocia, infatti quello di inquietanti personaggi che ordiscono trame che oscuramente si intrecciano con i personaggi delle leggende cantate dai bardi e con i bassorilievi di alcune chiese, che sembrano narrare episodi di una medesima storia che coinvolge Artù, Tristano e Giuseppe di Arimatea. Tutti i fili si riannoderanno in faccia all'oceano, nella rocca di Tintagel, ma un retrogusto amaro accompagnerà Créstien per tutta la vita. P.G. Kien ci conduce in un medioevo in cui il rigore della ricostruzione storica (i personaggi principali sono realmente esistiti e molti fatti realmente accaduti) conduce senza soluzione di continuità alle radici dell'immaginario.
