Throughout history, Jesus' parable of the sower has served as a beautiful word picture of the Christian life. And in modern times, no one has communicated this message more fervently than Billy Graham. His son Franklin is now carrying the torch of this vital message and has created a poignant, 31-day devotional to remind Christians what our purpose is in this life. This book gives readers step-by-step instruction and daily inspiration for following in Jesus' footsteps. Never before has this message been presented so beautifully and yet so practically. It will be a treasure for every Christian's personal devotions as well as a great gift for encouraging others.
